

Luminosity, Inc. announced the release of a cutting edge research report "Pretrial Risk Assessment in the Federal Court - For the Purpose of Expanding the Use of Alternatives to Detention." The research was sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of the Federal Detention Trustee (OFDT) with support from the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts.

The study employed data provided by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, Office of Probation and Pretrial Services (OPPS) that described all persons charged with criminal offenses in the federal courts between October 1, 2001 and September 30, 2007 who were processed by the federal pretrial services system (N=565,178). All federal districts with the exception of the District of Columbia were represented in the study.
